

Protecting your private information is our priority. This Privacy Policy applies to Brighter Days Teletherapy, its employees, and www.brighterdaysteletherapy.com (BDT). By using our website, you consent to the data practices described in this policy.

INFORMATION COLLECTION

We collect information to help us improve and enhance the overall experience and to communicate with our clients. Information that is not personally identifiable includes, but is not limited to, the type of browser you use and your IP address. Additionally, we may collect personal information that you voluntarily provide. This may include (a) sending us a question or comment; (b) making an appointment; (c) registering for a seminar; (d) filling out a form; and in connection with other services, features, or resources available on the website. You may be asked for your name, email address, phone number, address, and other personally identifiable information. Please keep in mind that if you directly disclose personally identifiable information or sensitive data through social media or other public message boards, others may collect and use this information.

SHARING INFORMATION

BDT does not sell, rent or lease our client lists to third parties. We may share data with trusted partners to help us perform statistical analysis, send you an email, provide support, or arrange appointments. BDT may disclose your personal information without notice, if required to do so by law in response to a subpoena, court order, or other governmental requests, or when we believe in good faith that disclosure is reasonably necessary to protect our property or rights, third parties, personal safety of users of BDT, or the public at large.

USE OF COOKIES

We may use “cookies” on this website. A cookie is a piece of data stored on a visitor’s computer to make browsing the Internet easier for you. It allows us to personalize and enhance your experience on our Website. We also may use cookies to track user trends and patterns. You can turn off cookies in your browser, however, if you turn them off, you will not be able to use website features to their fullest extent.

OTHER LINKED SITES

Our website may contain links to third-party websites. Those websites may send/use their own cookies, collect data, or solicit personal information. Whenever you provide personal information online to third-party websites, other people may collect and use information. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of third-party websites. While we strive to protect our users personal information and privacy, we cannot guarantee the security of any information you disclose online to third-party websites, and you do so at your own risk.

SECURITY FOR PROTECTING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

The security of your personal information is important. When you enter your name, address, and other information on our website forms, it is encrypted using secure socket layer technology (SSL). Your data will be stored in a secure operating environment that is not accessible without authorization.

We use security measures to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, disclosure, and other unlawful practice, both during transmission and once it is received; however, information transmitted and stored over the internet and via any wireless network, is not 100% secure, and thus, we are unable to guarantee absolute security. You acknowledge that: (a) there are security and privacy limitations inherent to the Internet which are beyond our control; and (b) security, integrity, and privacy and any and all information and data exchanged between you and us through our websites cannot be guaranteed.

CONSENT

By using this website, you consent to collecting and using information as specified above. If we make changes to our Privacy Policy, we will post those changes on this page. Please review this page frequently to remain up-to-date with the information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances we disclose it.
